

MITCHEL SWEEPS CITY BY ABOUT 110,000; REPUBLICANS REGAIN STATE ASSEMBLY

ASSEMBLY IS SAFE; JUDGES ALSO WIN

Werner and Hiscock, Republican Candidates, Go Into Office by Plurality Well Over 20,000 Mark.

PROGRESSIVES POOR THIRD

Upstate Vote Overwhelms Attempt of Murphy to Add Still Further to Strength in High Tribunal.

Charles F. Murphy's attempt to add still further to the Democratic strength in the Court of Appeals failed lamentably yesterday. Judge William E. Werner and Judge Frank H. Hiscock, Republicans, being elected Chief Judge and Associate Judge, respectively.

The vote upstate was overwhelmingly Republican, the indications being that the candidates of that party were chosen by a plurality upward of 25,000 over the Democratic runners-up.

This makes the court now stand five Republicans and four Democrats, with one vacancy among the designated judges to be filled by the Governor.

Judge Hand, of the federal bench, made a poor showing for chief judge, though running ahead of Judge Senbury, the Progressive candidate for associate judge.

It was expected last night that later returns would add to the plurality of the Republican candidates and make their victory over the Democratic ticket still more complete.

This court was intended to be as nearly non-partisan as human institutions can be, and the fact that for some time it has consisted of a big majority of Democrats is thought to have caused, in part, the landslide for the Republican judges.

The vote generally showed the Progressive party going back to the Republican party. An analysis of the ballots also demonstrated that in Greene County the Progressive vote dropped to 20, a loss of 66 per cent.

The socialist candidate, Slobodin, got more votes in Schenectady County than any of the regular candidates—6,386. In that county Bartlett received 5,665; Elkus, 5,684; Werner, 4,468; Hand, 2,232, and Hiscock, 4,614.

TAMMANY DOOMED, SAYS CROKER'S AID

Its Members Will Now Turn on Murphy, Declares James J. Martin.

James J. Martin, a former leader in Tammany Hall in the days of Richard Croker, whose right-hand man he was, but who has been on the outs with Charles F. Murphy, predicted last night the immediate downfall of Tammany Hall.

He has always kept in close touch with the inside workings of the Tammany organization and is considered an authority on those matters.

When asked what he had to say about the election of the fusion ticket, he said:

"All I want to say is about two words—'Boss Murphy.' His stupid leadership, his forcing the impeachment of Sulzer, have split his party in this state and have destroyed his ticket in this city.

"McCall did not count. It was Mitchell—the people, I mean. The result, in my opinion, will be that Murphy will have to walk the plank politically.

"There will be more opposition to him in Tammany Hall after to-morrow than there has been on this Election Day. I mean that the men who voted for his ticket to-day will be against him to-morrow. I have talked to hundreds who said they would stand by him through the election, but would leave Tammany Hall after election."

BUFFALO ANTI-TAMMANY

Fuhrmann and Entire Democratic Ticket Elected.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Buffalo, Nov. 4.—Louis P. Fuhrmann, anti-Tammany Democrat, was re-elected Mayor here to-day by a plurality of approximately 7,000. He carried with him the heads of the entire Democratic ticket, William Hunt being elected Commissioner of Charities and Corrections by a plurality of more than 12,000.

John Lord O'Brien, former member of the Assembly, who was nominated for Mayor by a citizens' committee and endorsed by the Progressives, ran second, getting 22,000 votes to Fuhrmann's 29,000.

Thomas Stoddard, the regular Republican nominee, was a bad third, getting less than 13,000 votes.

Herbert P. Bissell, Democrat, and Harry L. Taylor, Republican, were elected to the Supreme Court in the eighth judicial district. Mr. Bissell, who was appointed to the bench to fill out an unexpired term, was endorsed by the Progressives in most of the counties. He received the highest vote in the city, 50,323 out of a total vote of 80,000.

MASSACHUSETTS MAKES WALSH ITS GOVERNOR

Democratic Candidate Carries the Bay State by a Plurality of Nearly 50,000.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Boston, Nov. 4.—David L. Walsh, of Fitchburg, a bachelor, and not yet forty years old, who is just completing his first term as Lieutenant Governor, was elected Governor of Massachusetts to-day by about 50,000 plurality. Walsh ran even better than his campaign managers predicted, for while they asserted that he would get 165,000 votes, they really did not think so. Walsh is the first Roman Catholic to be honored with the office of Chief Magistrate. He ran especially strong in Boston, the great Democratic stronghold, and carried the city by over 28,000.

The fight for second place for Governor between Charles Sumner Bird, business man and mill owner and Progressive party nominee, and Representative Augustus P. Gardner, the Republican candidate, was very close, but incomplete returns at a late hour to-night indicated that the Republicans lost to their new party rival by a few votes. Official returns may make the battle between them even more close, but each is so far behind Walsh that they are really snowed under.

Governor Foss, the three times winner as a Democrat, who tempted fate for the fourth time as an independent, repudiated by all parties and all organizations, was almost ignored by the voters, and his vote is estimated at not much more than 20,000.

Walsh received last year for Lieutenant Governor about 192,000 votes and Foss a few thousand more. The normal Democratic vote went to Walsh almost solidly, and the fight was waged so fiercely that it is believed that the rest of the Democratic ticket was swept into office with Walsh.

Last year the Democrats elected the Governor, in Foss, the Lieutenant Governor, in Walsh, and the Secretary of State, in Donahue.

Edward P. Barry, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was cut heavily in favor of August Gotting, the Republican candidate, but the Democratic state committee claims Barry's election by a substantial plurality, probably by 25,000.

The returns indicate the election of the rest of the Democratic ticket.

Calvin D. Page, Republican, was chosen to succeed the late William H. Wilder, Republican, in the special election in the 3d Congress District. Stephen M. Marshall, Progressive, was far in the rear in the three-cornered fight.

Both branches of the Legislature are Republican, but the Progressives gained a few seats in the House of Representatives, the popular branch.

SULZER LAYS VICTORY TO PUBLIC OPINION

Deposed Governor's Election to Assembly from 6th District Sort of Family Affair.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

William Sulzer was elected to the Assembly yesterday in the 6th Assembly District of New York County. Great popular enthusiasm was shown, and, in fact, the election was made a sort of family affair. Early yesterday morning Mr. Sulzer's aide claimed that he would get two-thirds of the 6,200 votes enrolled.

When Mr. Sulzer learned the full details of his victory he said:

"My success is gratifying. Sometimes the victim becomes the victor. All the money Tammany spent in the district, all the thugs, guerrillas and repeaters Tammany directed to the district to bribe and to terrorize the voters and to stuff the ballot boxes, were impotent to accomplish my defeat. I won because the people had faith in William Sulzer."

"The voters have now condemned Mr. Murphy, reversed the judgment of his 'high court of infamy,' and vindicated me by the verdict of the polls, which, in the last analysis, is the opinion of mankind."

"Mr. Murphy condemns me," said Mr. Sulzer, "and orders his 'high court of infamy' to remove me from the Governorship because I refused to obey his orders, because I refused to sign his legislation, because I refused to be dishonest, because I refused to protect his grafts, and because I refused to be a party to the further looting of the state. No one familiar with the facts will doubt this assertion."

"From Mr. Murphy's 'high court of infamy' I appeal to the higher court of public opinion. Mr. Murphy says that there was no appeal from his court, but Mr. Murphy was mistaken, and he knows now that the judgment of the people can reverse the judgment of any court."

When Mr. Sulzer was asked for an expression of his sentiments at her husband's success, she replied that she could not speak until she had his permission. After a consultation with her Assemblyman-elect husband she said: "I am very glad my husband has won. He certainly deserved success after the heroic struggle he made for the people and honest government."

"Mr. Sulzer has never been beaten by the people and never lost an office he held except once, and then the boss had to steal it."

STUART VIRGINIA GOVERNOR. Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—The entire state Democratic ticket, headed by Henry C. Stuart, for Governor, was elected to-day without Republican opposition. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic. Less than one-half of the normal primary vote was polled to-day.

FIELDER WINS JERSEY BY 15,000 PLURALITY

Democratic Candidate Makes Strong Showing in Many Republican Strongholds.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

In one of the hottest elections that New Jersey has had in six years James F. Fielder, the Democratic candidate for Governor, won by a plurality of upward of 15,000 votes over E. C. Stokes, the Republican candidate. Mr. Fielder was the choice of President Wilson, and the campaign was waged along national lines, the President asking for Mr. Fielder's election as an endorsement of his administration at Washington.

The complexion of the new Legislature was in doubt at an early hour this morning, both sides claiming a majority. The actual result will not be known until about breakfast time this morning.

The Democrats apparently have retained control of the House of Assembly. They have elected twelve members in Essex, eleven in Hudson, one in Hunterdon, three in Middlesex and two in Monmouth, making twenty-nine. Warren and Sussex are absolutely sure, so that there will be a safe majority in the lower house. The Senate is still in doubt, with chances favoring Democratic control by a majority of one.

Mr. Fielder carried Millville, the home city of Mr. Stokes, and will probably carry the county of Cumberland because of the surprisingly good showing made by the Progressives. These votes taken away from Stokes helped Fielder, who polled the normal Democratic vote.

Aside from the closeness of the vote, the feature of the contest was the poor showing made by Everett Colby, the Progressive candidate for Governor. Mr. Colby conducted a vigorous campaign. He campaigned the state for the last month in an automobile, yet the vote he got yesterday was so small outside of his home county of Essex as to amount practically to nothing. In Hudson County, for instance, where George L. Record and other Progressive leaders live, Mr. Colby polled only a few thousand.

The Progressives declare that the reason for the light vote is found in the big vote for Mr. Fielder. Many Progressives, it is claimed, voted for the Democratic candidate just to defeat Mr. Stokes, believing that by voting for Mr. Colby they would be helping the Republican candidate.

Mr. Fielder received his biggest majority in Hudson, his home county. Here his neighbors stood by him so loyally that he ran several thousand

John Purroy Mitchel was elected Mayor yesterday by a plurality of about 110,000 over Edward E. McCall, his Tammany opponent.

Fusion swept the city wherever the anti-Tammany elements were united, and fusion gained control of the Board of Estimate, with a voting strength of 14 against 2 for the Democrats.

Prendergast and McAneny were both elected by safe pluralities, the Controller having the closest race of the fusion city ticket nominees. He won over Metz by about 20,000. McAneny's plurality over Goulden is upward of 54,000.

Marcus M. Marks, running for Borough President of Manhattan, in Tammany's own domain, won a fine uphill battle when he defeated Dr. Thomas Darlington by more than 15,000 votes. He reached that substantial plurality after being 5,000 down on the early returns, and with 111 election districts missing had 15,193 more votes than his Tammany opponent.

TAMMANY LOSES BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Final returns on fifty-eight aldermanic fights showed thirty-three Republican-fusion, twenty-four Democrats and one Progressive, and indications were that of the fifteen districts missing ten would go Democratic and five Republican, making the Board of Aldermen thirty-eight Republican-fusion, one Progressive and thirty-four Democrats.

Mathewson, fusion, in The Bronx, and Pounds, fusion, in Brooklyn, were elected, but McCormack, Democrat, in Richmond, surprised every one by defeating George Cromwell, the Republican, in a three-cornered fight. Connolly, Democrat, was elected in Queens.

The net result makes the Board of Estimate fourteen to two in favor of fusion in the division of its sixteen votes.

Mitchel ran more than 60,000 ahead of McCall in Brooklyn and close to 25,000 ahead of the Tammany candidate in Manhattan. McCall's managers conceded his defeat by 50,000 as early as 8 o'clock last night, and even "the chief" added his concession by 10 o'clock.

GRIFENHAGEN ELECTED BY 15,000 PLURALITY.

The county tickets in New York and Kings went fusion, according to the returns on Sheriff, which was taken as the bell-wether for the county tickets. Grifenhagen, fusion, in New York, was elected by upward of 15,000. In Kings, Swasey was running 20,000 ahead.

In The Bronx, where the anti-Tammany vote was split by the straight Progressive ticket and the Republican-Jeffersonian Democracy alliance, Tammany appeared to have won right down the line, with a close race on over the county judgeship and the Sheriff's job. Martin, Tammany candidate for District Attorney, won easily; Ten Eyck, Republican, coming second, and Press, Progressive, third.

BRONX TAMMANY'S ONLY CONSOLATION.

The same line-up held good throughout the ticket in the new county. Van Doren, Tammany candidate for County Judge, had a hard and close fight with Gibbs, the Republican-Jeffersonian. Later returns showed Gibbs leading by 344, with sixteen election districts missing.

Schulz, Tammany, for Surrogate, defeated Boyle, Republican, by about 3,000. Ganley, Democrat, for County Clerk, and Pollak, Democrat, for Register, won out by good margins, but O'Brien, Tammany candidate for Sheriff, was able to keep only about 500 ahead of O'Neil, the Republican-Jeffersonian candidate.

The Bronx appeared to be about the only place around the city where the tiger might turn for comfort.

Sulzer was elected Assemblyman in the 6th District by a vote of about 2 to 1 over Harry Kopp, Republican.

District Attorney Whitman was re-elected in New York County. His name appeared on all tickets except the Socialist.

Surrogate Ketcham, McCooley's candidate, was re-elected with the aid of the Progressives.

FINAL FALL OF TAMMANY SEEN IN SECOND FUSION VICTORY IN FOUR YEARS.

I shall be Mayor for all the people of New York and not for any faction, division or party.—John Purroy Mitchel.

Mr. Mitchel's election and the success of the fusion ticket are a triumph for good government. The result is just what I hoped for and for which
